To Whom It May Concern:

On behalf of MarathonNorco Aerospace Inc. this letter is a confirmation that MUIRHEAD AVIONICS is our authorized Christie representative in England, who acts as our main channel of distribution and service in the region. The specific product line that is under their authorization is:

All Christie Equipment including but not limited to our RF80 Battery Charger/Analyzer models, CASP Universal Battery Support Systems, ProEase DataFX, R-400 GPU and our AC to DC Power Supplies.

MUIRHEAD AVIONICS provides a very strong presence in the UK and has demonstrated the ability to provide our Christie brand of high quality products into select markets and is very capable of providing technical sales related information and service.

MUIRHEAD has been our agent and distributor for the Christie product line since 1989 and continues to offer superior knowledge of our products and technical sales and service including calibration, repair and warranty support for us in a partnership that continues very strongly today. We are happy to share this information with you so that you will be informed of our relationship and the positive position this company is in to provide you the best business solutions. If you have any questions regarding our agreement with MUIRHEAD AVIONICS, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Sonia Nelson, our Christie Product Support person.

Sincerely,

John Pitcher
Sales & Marketing Manager
